

Yesway Opens Two New Allsup's Stores in Odessa and Monahans, Texas

January 12, 2026

Leading Convenience Retailer Now Counts 250 Stores in the State

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 12, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Yesway, one of the nation's fastest-growing convenience store chains, concluded this past year with the opening of two new-to-industry Allsup's stores in Odessa and Monahans, Texas, during the fourth quarter of 2025.

These latest additions further strengthen the company's footprint in its largest state and bring its total Texas store count to 250 locations. Each of the new Odessa and Monahans stores spans 6,277 square feet of modern, large-format retail space and operates 24/7 to maximize customer convenience. Each offer Allsup's World Famous Burritos, a full selection of Yesway private-label products, fresh groceries, including bread, milk, and eggs, well-stocked beer caves, ATMs, Western Union services, and digital and cryptocurrency ATM options.

These stores, like all new Yesway and Allsup's stores, reflect the company's commitment to providing an elevated, consistent customer experience, delivering operational excellence, and offering modern amenities that meet the evolving needs of rural and suburban communities.

"The pace at which our incredibly talented and dedicated team was able to deliver new Allsup's stores across our network in 2025 is a testament to our culture of service, innovation, and execution," said Tom Trkla, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and President of Yesway.

He continued, "Every new store opening represents not just an expansion of our footprint, but an expansion of our responsibility to serve and support the communities that welcome us. I am profoundly grateful to our team members, whose hard work and enthusiasm fuel our progress every single day, and to our loyal customers, who continue to embrace us and make us feel welcome in their communities."
